Information on the processing of personal data:

Personal data that the customer submits in connection with this form or which is otherwise registered in connection therewith is processed by the bank for preparation and administration of salary payments. The processing of personal data may, within the framework of existing confidentiality regulations, also take place by other companies within the Nordea Group and other companies with whom the Group cooperates in its operations, e.g. Bankgirocentralen and SWIFT (Society for Worldwide Interbank Financial Telecommunication). Transactions processed via SWIFT involve the processing of personal data in central transaction databases in both Europe and the USA. Information can therefore be available to public authorities in countries other than Sweden according to local legislation.

In the event the customer wants to receive information regarding what personal data concerning him or her is processed by the bank, the customer request the same in writing from Nordea Bank AB (publ), Personuppgiftsansvarig, 105 71 Stockholm. A customer who wishes to request rectification of erroneous or misleading data may contact the bank at the above address.
