Application for payment of government and social insurance office service group life insurance

Send this form to:
Statens tjänstepensionsverk, SPV
851 90 Sundsvall

Useful information before completing the form

The easiest way for you to apply for payment of government and social insurance office service group life insurance is at spv.se/ansok-tgl.

The estate may receive compensation from occupational group life insurance in the form of assistance with funeral expenses.

We pay compensation from government and social insurance office service group life insurance to husbands, wives, registered partners, domestic partners and children. Exceptions may be made where specific beneficiaries have been appointed. Before the payment is done we do contact the receiver of the compensation in order to get information about the account number.

In the application, you can indicate that you would like SPV to obtain the Death certificate and relatives report (Dödsfallsintyg med släktutredning) from the Swedish Tax Agency. Otherwise, you will need to submit a death certificate and relatives report yourself. You can request this from the Swedish Tax Agency by calling 0771-567 567.
